

Withdraws Suit Against City

Was Started By Michigan Public Service Co.
With Intent To Stop or Delay Construction of Municipal Electric Plant.

Don Sweeney, local manager of the Michigan Public Service Co., announced to the Avalanche today that his Company had withdrawn its suit against the City of Grayling, contesting the election at which time the citizens of Grayling voted to approve the City Council's plan to construct and operate a municipal electric light and power plant to supply the people of Grayling.

The suit was to have come up in Circuit Court next Tuesday.

All City Officials Easily Reelected

ALL PRESENT OFFICIALS RE-ELECTED

Graylingites were quite lax in getting out to vote Monday, apparently being contented with the present council and willing to stay at home and let others do the voting for them. Only 441 votes were cast, out of about 950 registered.

However those who did exercise their right of suffrage placed their stamps of approval on the present incumbents on the city council. Here are the figures as taken from the official records:

Councilman—

George Burke—316
Frank Sales—314
Roy Milnes—317
Albert L. Roberts—319
Carl Jensen—313
Holger Peterson—117
Edwin Carlson—175
Earl Nelson—114

Justice of the Peace—

Hans Petersen—244
Paul Hendrickson—90
George VanPatten—52
Harley Russell—27

Constable—

Joseph Denno

In spite of his 82 years of age, Hans Petersen was given a huge vote for the office of city justice of the peace. Out of a total of 441 votes he received 244. Mr. Petersen gives his undivided attention to his duties as justice and we know that he has made a fine record, with very few errors in judgment. He is intelligent, honest and intends to be fair in everything he goes into. He has made a fine record and he should be proud of the endorsement the voters of his city have given him by their votes. Paul Hendrickson had the next highest vote and made an excellent showing considering that this was his first experience in campaigning. He is a fine and able young man and would have made an able official.

Joseph Denno for constable had no opposition and was duly elected. He is the WPA foreman on the job at the Grayling trout hatchery.

ENTERTAIN WITH DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Esbern Hanson and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Joseph were hosts at a very delightful dinner with the ladies and gentlemen of their Bridge club as guests.

Bouquets of marigold gave a cheerful atmosphere to the rooms where the dinner was served on small tables.

High scores for contract were held by Mrs. Roy Milnes and Dr. C. R. Keyport.

This was the final of a series of

Easter Sunrise Services Attract Thousands As Churches of Nation Hold Observances

Each Easter Sunday morning thousands of worshippers gather at the gently graded slope of Mount Forest Lawn in Forest Lawn Memorial park, Glendale, Calif., for sunrise services. A huge choir, dressed in white forms a living cross on the side of the slope. During the past few years sunrise services have become increasingly numerous, and have been held in all sections of the country where weather permits.

Resent Action Against Municipal Light and Power Plant

CITIZENS' COMMITTEE HAS BIG MEMBERSHIP

Plan United Action For City's Interests

As a result of the court action started for the purpose of defeating the plans of the people for the construction of a municipal electric light and power plant, a call was sent out for a mass meeting to be held in the school auditorium Monday night. This was for the purpose of organizing a citizens' committee if it was the desire of those present to do so.

The meeting was called by Dr. C. R. Keyport, T. P. Peterson, Dr. J. F. Cook, Dr. C. G. Clippert, Holger F. Peterson and Clarence Gross.

Over 100 were present. Dr. Keyport explained the purpose of the meeting and said that ever since he had been in Grayling there were some who opposed municipal improvements. It was always a fight to put thru plans that were to cost money. He pointed out the new school building, the bonds for which have long since been retired; the waterworks and paving bonds; the sewage disposal bonds, all of which are being paid with due regularity. None of these projects were to produce revenue more than their cost for operation, still we were getting along without difficulty. Now here was a project, a municipal lighting and power plant, that quite assured not only that it would pay for itself out of its earnings, but promised a profitable earning besides.

Now, as we are about to begin the sale of our bonds and ask for bids for equipment and construction, the Michigan Public Service Co., thru some of our own people step in and try to stop and delay us. He read the following resolution:

Whereas, a special election was held in the City of Grayling on February 20, 1939 at which was submitted to the voters of said City the proposition of acquiring a municipal light and power plant, and

Whereas, said proposition was affirmatively carried by the necessary majority of the voters of said City, and

Whereas, prior to said election, the Michigan Public Service Company actively opposed said proposition, and by various publications and public meetings, attempted to influence the voters of said city to vote against said proposition, and

Whereas, suit has now been instituted against the City by Merle F. Nellist, Prosecuting Attorney for Crawford County on the relation of Gale Clise and Jappe F. Smith, in which it is alleged that said election is void, because of certain technical errors therein, and

Whereas, we as citizens of Grayling are of opinion that said suit was instigated by the Michigan Public Service Co.

CONSERVATION MEN INSPECT DEER AREAS

Eight men representing the State Conservation department, met here last Sunday for the purpose of visiting the deer areas to study the food conditions following the winter season. In the party were the following: Boyd Belcher, past president; Lyle Torrant, treasurer; Glen L. Fisher, executive secretary, and Herbert Friend, president, of the Jackson County Conservation league, and H. D. Sharpe, all of Jackson, Mich.; Carl Cowen and Paul Hickie, both of the Game division of the Department of Conservation; and Otto Failing, local conservation officer.

Pictures were taken showing conditions of areas that appeared to have been browsed to the very limit. Cedar trees were stripped of every bit of foliage as high up as was possible for deer to reach. In some regions it looked quite like it would have had if a group of woodsmen had made it a business to trim the branches. There wasn't a twig left that could be eaten.

It is well known that a certain species of trees won't be touched, such as spruce, for instance, and these stand untouched.

Many deer were trapped in this area last fall and shipped to other regions, hoping to relieve the food problem, still there seemed to remain too many in proportion to the amount of natural food available.

While this group wasn't searching to find out if any deer had starved during the winter, one was found. This one had a broken left shoulder and appeared to have been shot, probably during the hunting season. It was a good sized buck. Its antlers had been shed and beneath the body was considerable snow, indicating that it had lived some time after being shot and, because of its broken shoulder, was unable to get food and eventually died.

The deer yards north of the National Guard rifle range and those in and about Portage Lake swamp were the ones inspected. Another group will make further inspection soon. The public is invited to go out with these men whenever they are on official duty.

COMPLETE LAKE MARGARETHE SURVEY

CCC enrollees from Camp Higgins Lake, under the direction of John Mallinger, Jr. Foreman, recently completed a survey and lake improvement work on Lake Margrethe, west of here.

In surveying the lake, the crew took depth soundings at 200 foot intervals to determine the contour of the lake bottom. Fifty foot intervals were used near shoreline. The deepest sounding was 85 feet. Improvement work consisted of the construction and placement of brush fish shelters. The shelters were installed in 10 feet of water and at 300 foot intervals along the north shore of the lake.

Local Girls Enter Trout Queen Contest

Entries of contestants from Mancelona, Kalkaska, Traverse City, South Boardman, Rapid City, and Grayling have been announced by the Kalkaska Trout committee.

Mrs. Stanley Stealy, chairman of the Queen's committee, announces that Miss Francis Entminger, Grayling's 1939 Winter sports queen, and Miss Margaret Buck, have been entered as contestants; others will be announced later.

From each community several girls are selected; these girls will sell a replica of a trout in the form of a pin. These pins will sell for fifty cents. The girl selling the largest number of pins represents her particular community. On Saturday evening, April 29, at the Queen-King's ball, the selection of the Kalkaska Trout Queen will be made from among those who won in their respective communities.

Outside judges will make the selection. On the following day the girl selected will be flown from Traverse City airport to Detroit and be presented to Richard Reading, Mayor of Detroit. She will be flown back to her destination afterwards.

Why not get behind these girls who are selling these pins in your community. Anyone girl can have as many co-workers as she so desires. The time is short, let's put this queer, and be represented in the trout festival.

IMPROVED SIX 40-ACRE PLOTS

Veteran enrollees out of CCC Camp AuSable have recently completed six 40-acre plots on a timber stand improvement project. The areas improved are in a thick and dense stand of Jack pine, in most cases numbering more than three thousand per acre. A stand of approximately eight hundred to the acre is being left. The resultant wood products are being used in various ways to benefit the forest.

Small poles cut from the area are to be used this spring on stream improvement projects and larger poles and logs are to be used in the construction of several small log bridges in the AuSable State Forest. Products not suitable for these purposes will be used for cordwood.

CAMP AU SABLE WORKING ON TELEPHONE LINE

The survey for the last three miles of the Elk Hill-Dow River telephone line project is now being conducted by Veteran enrollee McCloud. This spur will link CCC Camp AuSable, the State Forest Headquarters and District Headquarters at Roscommon with the Elk Hill fire tower. Veteran enrollees from Camp AuSable are doing the survey work under the direction of Jr. Foreman Bruce McGregor.

During the winter the State Conservation department planted 41 sharp-tail grouse in the vicinity near the Fletcher settlement. These were brought from the Upper Peninsula and it is believed they will thrive in this vicinity.

SOON TIME FOR SPRING FLOWERS

With the snowline in Michigan rapidly retreating northward, reports of the first spring flowers have been made in some places while the snow was still on the ground.

First flowers to bloom in Michigan are the Hepatica and the Spring Beauty. The flowers of the Hepatica are blue, lavender, pink or white, with no two clusters exactly alike. They are sometimes fragrant, always sweet and woody. The fragile blossoms of the Spring Beauty are starchy and pink veined, quickly drooping if picked.

Third flower to bloom in Michigan is the Arbutus, once found throughout the north country but now scarce and comparatively seldom seen. The flowers, if taken should be carefully cut, not pulled up, as the whole plant might easily be destroyed.

Health & Hygiene

CAUSES OF HEART DISEASE

Infectious poisons and long continued emotional strain are the two principal causes of heart disease.

In children, valvular heart disease may often be traced to an acute inflammatory rheumatism and to the so-called St. Vitus' dance. Both produce changes in the lining of the heart and its valves and even "growing pains" are anxiously watched by the physician. Timely care may prevent the onset of more serious heart conditions in adult life.

Still more grave is the condition resulting from a social disease when the aorta or vessels issuing from the heart are affected.

Infections of the teeth, tonsils, sinuses, gall bladder and prostate gland may gradually, but rarely fatally, affect heart action.

An over-active thyroid gland, even before marked goiter appears, may be responsible for faster and weaker heart beats. Such irregularity disappears shortly after operation of the gland.

Long continued nervous tension, obesity or diabetes produce a thickening in the walls of the blood vessels leading to and from the heart. Then, in order to supply the organs of the body with the same volume of blood normally required, the heart must pump the fluid at ever faster rate through the reduced arteries.

Finally, as physicians long ago observed, persons having a family history of heart or arterial disease seem to inherit organs which exhibit "wear and tear" at an early stage of life. With periodic physical examinations and with advice regarding diet, removal of infected areas and a more placid mode of life, the heart function can be preserved and hereditary factors largely offset.

SYMPTOMS OF EAR TROUBLE

While a number of disease conditions often are characterized by symptoms which are mistakenly attributed to an infection or degenerative change in the ear, a careful examination by a trained otologist will leave no room for doubt.

Members of a family in which there is a history of deafness or ear disease should be especially observant of possible trouble and should seek medical aid early even though the discomfort might seem temporary or trivial.

Among the warning signs there might be listed:

First, deafness or a sensation of blocking, particularly after exposure to cold, while swimming, after fatiguing work or exercise, as an accompaniment of constipation or resulting from any period of lowered bodily resistance.

Second, when it is necessary to ask for the repetition of words and phrases; when two sounds are heard instead of one and when the patient seems to hear better in noisy places.

Third, tenderness, itching or pain in or about the ear.

Fourth, "ringing" in the ear.

Fifth, dizziness, a sense of unsteadiness, sometimes with nausea and vomiting.

Sixth, moisture or a discharge issuing from the ear.

Seventh, swelling in or about the ear, painful or otherwise.

When there is reason to believe that the ear is not functioning normally, the person so afflicted should submit to a thorough examination of the ear. Often, it will be found a diseased condition of the nose, throat and teeth is contributing to deafness. If the itching cause is not then revealed, x-ray photographs may be made of the chest and blood tests conducted to facilitate diagnosis. The physician will seek, if possible, to aid natural body forces in the recovery of the hearing and, as well, to remove any discernible factor tending to prolong the disease.

Not all ear trouble can be prevented. Sometimes it is of an

Orders Truck-Loading Restricted

Special spring truck loading restrictions were ordered by the state highway department this week on all state trunkline highways.

State Highway Commissioner Murray D. VanWagoner's order for general application of the restrictions followed by several weeks the original order placing them in effect on all trunkline highways south of the Bay City-Muskegon line. The spring regulations call for load limit reductions of 25 per cent on all concrete roads and 35 per cent on gravel roads. They may be applied or lifted by the state highway commissioner as conditions warrant during March, April and May. The commissioner said that the restrictions would be lifted as rapidly as conditions on individual highways permitted.

These measures are designed to protect the highways during the periods of "spring break-up" when the frost leaves the ground and subgrades are soft.

DEPT. OF STATE

STATE NEWS BULLETIN

MOTORISTS WARNED OF JUNK CAR RACKET

Motorists who junk their cars either by design or as the consequence of an accident, may unwittingly be aiding car thieves, Harry F. Kelly, Secretary of State, points out.

The possibility of motorists being an involuntary party to auto theft rings, exists more often in the case of new or nearly new cars that have been wrecked. If car thieves can acquire a fairly new model car, wrecked and about to be junked, and acquire its title as well, their path is not difficult. It is necessary then only to obtain a car of like make and design, make alterations such as exchanging motors, to have a car and title, to which no one could challenge, Kelly advises.

Motorists can protect themselves against such a possibility if they will note that the only instance in which a title does not "follow the car" is when the car is to be junked.

The Motor Vehicle Law provides that a motorist disposing of his car to a junk dealer, must assign the title to the car to the junk dealer, but not deliver it to the junk dealer. Rather, the title must be sent to the Secretary of State, together with an application for a certificate to junk which can be secured from licensed car junkers. A junking permit is then sent to the dealer by the Secretary of State.

Reports from Police Department Investigators have definitely shown that car theft operations have been carried on. Wrecked cars may be "snatched" in any part of the State. In every instance, such operations would be impossible if junked car titles had been sent to Lansing in accordance with the law.

hereditary nature, sometimes the companion of age, sometimes the result of repeated infections which have destroyed the hearing apparatus.

It is generally true, however, that the earlier treatment is sought, the better is the chance for preserving the hearing. No ear infection of children should be regarded lightly.

Mr. Gerald Poor entertained her 7th grade Sunday School class at her home Friday evening. Several games were enjoyed by the group until Mrs. Poor served a delicious lunch. Bob Tiffin received the highest honors for having the best Sunday School attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mortenson of Beaver Creek made a hurried trip to Ann Arbor Saturday with their little daughter, who had swallowed an open safety pin that morning. The pin was removed and they returned home Tuesday with the little lady feeling much better.

Reserve Friday evening, April 14 to hear Dr. Elzada Clover's illustrated talk on "The Colorado River Expedition" at the high school auditorium. The lecture is given under the auspices of the Woman's Club, and everyone is urged to attend. Dr. Clover is an outstanding speaker and intensely interesting.

Bill LaGrow, Bill Hunter and Bob LaMotte were hosts to the firemen Wednesday night of last week at their regular monthly social gathering. The party was held at the LaMotte home and pinocle and Bunco played. Mrs. Stanley Mausen, Mrs. Madeline LaMotte and Mrs. Mattie Moshier carried off the scoring honors respectively.

Fire that started from an overheated stove, caused small damage at the home of Mrs. Nettie Stephan Tuesday forenoon. A stovepipe through the side of the building became overheated and burned the boards around the chimney hole. The building, which was formerly a garage, sometime ago was fitted up for living quarters and Mrs. Stephan lives there.

Bob Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hill, and a student in the naval academy at Annapolis, and his room mate have been selected to represent the academy in the intercollegiate dinghy competition that is to be held in June. It might be well to explain that a dinghy is a small boat of a man-of-war, or a rowboat without rigging. These two young men would have to be expert in order to have been singled out to represent the naval academy. It is a fine honor.

Henry Jordan, who has been a section foreman for the Michigan Central railroad since 1914 finished his work Friday, having reached the required pension age. He first began work in Bay City and was transferred to Grayling a short time later. In 1929 when his section was discontinued here, he was transferred to Pinconning, also later working at Cheboygan and Indian River until he went to Saginaw five years ago. He has returned to his home in Grayling.

A large crowd attended the Eastern Star dance given at the Masonic Temple Friday evening, March 31. It was a social evening with several tables of cards in play and Chinese checkers also, for those not caring to dance. Music for dancing was furnished by a three-piece orchestra, composed of Don Young, Don Reynolds, and Mr. Meyers of Gaylord. During intermission the ladies of the Eastern Star served refreshments. The party broke up about 2 a. m. with everyone present proclaiming the Eastern Stars as excellent hosts, and hoping that they would have another such party in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Emert are happy over the arrival of a son, born to them Tuesday, April 4.

Teddy, the 2 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crawford, narrowly escaped serious injury when he fell out of an upstairs window at their home a few days ago. Mrs. Crawford was about to dress Teddy, and as was usual, he ran away to hide, so she could look for him. He ran upstairs and the next thing they knew they heard him crying outdoors. He was immediately taken to the hospital, where a deep gash that had been cut in his head from striking on the frozen ground was closed. It is reported that Teddy is recovering nicely at Mercy Hospital.

Before you select your smart Easter Outfit be sure to see the complete new line at the Maureen Shoppe.

Mrs. Lottie Tatro submitted to an operation at Mercy Hospital Tuesday morning, and is reported as getting along as well as may be expected.

Dr. David Shetter and Harold Bowditch of the Institute of Fisheries Research of Ann Arbor, spent last week at Grayling Fish Hatchery. Maple Hill Dairy

In many older parts of the world people still cling to the ancient custom of leading their cow to the market places and the customers door. The cow is milked into a container furnished by the customer.

Here in the U. S. your milk is pasteurized; last but not least cooled and delivered in a sanitary and sterilized bottle.
